

Open meeting

To discuss the

Orchard Park Shopping Centre

TUES 24TH FEBRUARY 2004 - 11:30AM
at the Orchard Park Community Centre

This is your chance to come along to have your say and discuss progress so far and plans for the future of the centre.

The Orchard Park Shopping Centre Regeneration Board will include in their next meeting a public information and debate session. The various funders and planners for the scheme will be there along with the master-planning consultants who will be drawing up a wider development brief for the area.

The partnership would welcome your views

This will be the first of several occasional public sessions.

If you cannot attend but would like to be kept informed please contact Rob Kingdom.
